

RIP WAR-MAKING POWER GONE

Big 4 Seek To Hurry Parley

MINISTERS MEETING TO DISCUSS LAG IN CONFERENCE ACTIONS

NEW DISPUTES HEARD OVER REPARATIONS IN PRECEDING SESSION

PARIS, Aug. 29.—(AP)—The foreign ministers today in an attempt to rescue the peace conference from its doldrums and agreed upon procedure for handling the 300 proposed amendments which have bogged down committees.

A French informant said the foreign ministers of Britain, Russia, France and the United States, who came from their meeting in an apparently amiable mood, had renewed their pledges to support the portions of the five treaty drafts upon which they had previously agreed.

They will oppose amendment of the agreed portions by any of the members of the peace conference.

However, they also agreed, the informant said, to review all projected amendments and to support in committee those that were mutually acceptable.

PARIS, Aug. 29.—(AP)—The foreign ministers of Britain, Russia, the United States and France met this afternoon in an effort to find a way to revitalizing the Paris peace conference.

Shortly before the ministers gathered, the conference had witnessed another clash. An Australian proposal to establish a sub-committee to collect factual data on the Italian-French frontier was beaten back 15 to six in the Italian commission after a heated Australian-Russian exchange.

The four principal powers and nine other nations voted against the Australian plan.

Seek Common Ground. The Big Four ministers first task it was believed, was to devise a common ground for dealing with the 300 amendments to treaty drafts which have snowed under the conference. As they met only the preliminaries to four of the treaties had been adopted in commissions. The conference itself had yet to pass on most of these, having passed on less than 200 of the 55,000 words in the five treaties for Bulgaria, Italy, Romania, Finland and Hungary.

John A. Bessley, the Australian delegate, took up the award of the Mont Cenis plateau to France in particular in his argument before the Italian commission that a special committee should make a study on all disputed territorial questions connected with the Italian treaty.

"Never Seen Documents." Referring to papers collected by a committee of experts, Bessley said: "We have never seen these documents."

RAIN PASSES 6 INCHES

Rainfall here during the 24-hour period ending at 7 a. m. Thursday morning amounted to 2.40 inches, according to the government gauge. This brought the precipitation in Corsicana to 6.88 inches for the past three days. Additional rainfall occurred after the Thursday morning reading.

Reports reaching Corsicana, however, from other sections of the Navarro county indicate that the rainfall there has not reached the proportion as in Corsicana, although there has been sufficient moisture for all purposes.

H. C. Robinson, county agent, believes crops except some old cotton will be benefited. Pastures and young cotton will be helped, while the rains will insure ample moisture for fall gardens and planting of winter pastures and soil building practices.

Chambers creek on Highway 31 was reported half bank Thursday morning and coupled with the heavy rains of earlier in the week reported on its upper reaches at Ellis and Johnson counties, there is a possibility that the stream may overflow.

A number of smaller streams were reported overflowing Thursday morning, and Richland creek, the other major stream in the county, is on a rise but is not expected to cause serious damage.

The dry season of about two months had left the soil in an exceedingly dry condition and much of the precipitation was immediately soaked into the soil, or into the large sun cracks as found on the black sand, leaving only a minimum run-off.

Blooming Grove reported a fine rain as did Dawson and Kerens.

OPA To Stick To Schedule On New Ceilings For Meat

BY EDWIN B. HARRISON

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—(AP)—OPA clung today to its schedule for restoring meat price ceilings September 9 despite the 11th hour snarl that kept live animals free of controls for four extra days.

When the new schedules are posted, however, they will average about five and one-half cents a pound higher for beef and between two and one-half and three cents a pound for pork than June 30 ceilings. They'll still be below current costs.

OPA and the agriculture department agreed on those estimates after differing sharply on what ceiling to clamp on the livestock markets.

Anderson Uses Power. Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson resolved that dispute by taking advantage of the new power congress granted him. He divided OPA Chief Par' Porter to hike the June 30 live animal ceilings by $2.25 a hundred for beef and $1.40 for pork in an effort to stimulate production.

The OPA Cost of Living committee today labeled this action as the climax to "a long series of incidents in which Anderson has acted as mouthpiece for profiteers."

In a statement issued by Clinton P. Anderson, the committee said American living standards have been dealt "a new and disastrous blow."

New Ceilings Delayed. The new live animal ceilings were to have gone into effect last midnight, but OPA late yesterday announced a delay until Sunday to permit the agency to complete work on a new set of price tops for packers, wholesalers and retailers.

OPA said ceilings still will apply Sunday to slaughterers and the packers, on September 5 to wholesalers and one September 9 to the butcher shops.

To complete the program, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation announced last night that effective Sunday it is restoring the ceilings on meat.

Hickerson said Teague hoped to receive his retirement orders by the end of the day and leave Friday or Saturday for Texas. He plans to bring his family to Washington later in the year.

The first allied ground officer in Cherbourg after the invasion of France, Teague won the Silver Star and two clusters. He has been under hospitalization for 22 months as a result of a wound in the left ankle.

Teague attended high school at Mena, Ark., and graduated from Texas A. and M. college in 1932. He is married and has three children, James, 11, Jack, 10, and Jill, six months. His wife is the former Freddie Dunham of Fort Worth.

Clayton Hickerson graduated from Corsicana High school, and has been a well-known newspaperman for a number of years. He edited the Athens Review for some time and recently was a staff correspondent for the Associated Press with headquarters in Dallas.

Hickerson's mother, Mrs. Addie M. Rylie, resides here.

FIRST YEAR OF U. S. OCCUPATION SUMMED UP BY GEN. M'ARTHUR

MILITARY MACHINE OF EMPIRE SAID "FULLY DESTROYED" BY YANKS

TOKYO, Friday, Aug. 30.—(AP)—General MacArthur's headquarters took a look at the record of its first full year in Japan and saw: Japan's military machine destroyed; war making industrial power taken over; business monopolies broken up; and democratic forms of government instituted.

Since MacArthur landed one year ago today, a headquarters spokesman announced, "the Japanese military machine has been completely destroyed. Its liquidation has added, required disarming, demobilizing and disposing of approximately 4,000,000 armed personnel in the home islands and 2,500,000 abroad. Two million civilians had to be returned home from overseas."

"Today, the last remnants... are streaming home, and the work of repatriation is drawing to a close. Nine million have been processed in this single year. For magnitude, thoroughness, speed and precision this has constituted a demobilization and repatriation which has no precedent in history."

Destruction of millions of weapons and thousands of aircraft, and control of destruction of navy forces and industrial facilities "has ended Japan's" war-making power and potential.

The spokesman continued, "the Japanese empire has been reduced to place sovereignty squarely in the hands of the people, upon whom it bestows a full measure of human freedom. The masses of Japan, Page 8

Some of the main points reached in the agreement include that Chairman Sany and Secretary W. H. Kirtland of Dallas of the state executive committee will not be candidates for re-election, Elmer

UN Split On New Members

RUSSIA BLOCKS THREE ADMISSIONS; U. S. IS EXPECTED TO BAR ONE

REDS' OBJECTIONS TO IRELAND, PORTUGAL, TRANS-JORDAN TOLD

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Aug. 29.—(AP)—Soviet Russia today blocked the applications of Ireland, Trans-Jordan and Portugal for membership in the United Nations for the sole reason that Russia does not have diplomatic relations with those countries.

Refusing to explain his position further despite sharp challenges from a majority of his colleagues, Andrei A. Gromyko, of Russia, told the U. N. security council that Russia could not support the applications of those countries for the reasons that they do not have normal diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union.

His position was attacked by Paul Hasluck, Australian delegate, and by Herschel V. Johnson, United States delegate, and other members. Gromyko refused to add anything.

Johnson, already involved with the Russian delegate in a controversy over Russian-sponsored Albania and Outer-Mongolia, said: "I totally reject the point of view expressed by the Soviet Union and I think it is contrary to the fundamental law of this organization."

The only application not opposed so far in council debate is that of Afghanistan. There still was no indication when a final vote on all applications would be taken.

"Prejudice" Charged. Hasluck charged Russia with "prejudice" in refusing to accept Trans-Jordan's application.

Russia had asked the council to

Death Sentences Of CHIANG KAI-SHEK IS REPORTED AGREEING TO NEW PEACE PLAN

Jews In Palestine Riots Commuted

LONDON, Aug. 29.—(AP)—The colonial office announced tonight that the death sentences against 18 S. P. G. members convicted of bomb attacks on the Haifa railway yards in Palestine have been commuted to life imprisonment.

The commutation was made by Lt. Gen Sir Evelyn Barker, commanding officer in Palestine, who had to pass final review of the military court sentence.

Results of the review had been tensely awaited in Palestine, where Jewish underground resistance organizations had threatened reprisals against British officers and officials if the death sentences were carried out.

Building Dispute In Houston Is Ended Thursday

HOUSTON, Tex., Aug. 29.—(AP)—The $100,000,000 building tie-up here ended today.

The Houston Associated General Contractors and AFL Building Trades Council announced signing early this afternoon of an agreement in the 77-day-old dispute which had halted virtually all commercial construction and home building in this fast-growing city.

More than $50,000,000 worth of commercial projects had been struck or closed down. A shutdown of building materials suppliers and other factors connected with the combination strike and lock-out slowed home building to an almost complete stop.

The settlement was announced after a series of secret meetings

CHINESE STRONG MAN SAID TO HAVE GIVEN NOD TO COMPROMISE

NANKING, Aug. 29.—(AP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek was reported reliably today to have approved the creation of a committee of five, headed by American Ambassador John Leighton Stuart, to clear the way for a coalition government taking in all parties.

This was regarded here as the most hopeful development in the Chinese situation in recent weeks.

It came as fighting in the north increased sharply in intensity, and as the Communists announced they might set up their own separate "National government" rather than accept any new constitution in which they did not have a voice.

The primary objective of Stuart's committee would be to bring the Communist and minor parties together in a 40-man state council which would serve as an interim coalition governing body until a more permanent administration is formed at the Nov. 12 national assembly.

The committee probably would not begin functioning until early next week.

The most difficult problem before the group would be to strike an acceptable voting balance to satisfy Communist demands for being dominated by the Kuomintang.

Yenan wants a veto power—two-thirds vote instead of a simple majority on all questions affecting the constitution and the February 23rd all-party political conference. These decisions laid out the course the nation must follow if it is to achieve constitutional democracy.

Formation of the council presumably would bring an end to hostilities and give General Marshal and the Communist and Nationalist members of his committee a free hand to proceed with military reorganization of China and the restoration of disrupted communications.

Coke Sees Negro Universities On Separate Funds

AUSTIN, Tex., Aug. 29.—(AP)—A statement by Gov. Coke Steven today indicated that the bi-racial commission on higher education for negroes may decide not to recommend establishment of a negro university which would share income from the University of Texas as permanent fund.

The governor said he was not reporting for the commission, and added that the group is not yet ready to make a report relative to establishment of a first-rate university for negroes.

Steven said he had talked with Mark McGee, commission chairman, who reported a detailed analysis is being made of the per-

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—(AP)—Col. Olin E. "Tiger" Teague, soldier-congressman, got ready today to doff his uniform and devote his time to duties as representative of the Sixth Texas district.

Elected Saturday to fill the unexpired term of former Representative Luther A. Johnson, who resigned to accept a federal judgeship, Colonel Teague spent the morning at Walter Reed Army hospital for final physical checkup before receiving either a discharge or retirement on service-connected disabilities.

The former College Station, Texas, postoffice superintendent, who was wounded six times in the European fighting, not only was elected for the remainder of Johnson's term expiring next January, but also won Democratic nomination for a full two-year term.

His service as a congressman began immediately upon his election Saturday, even though congress is not now in session.

MRS. LONDON CLYDE SLIMP, JR.

CHURCH RITES UNITE MISS MARY ANN CURINGTON AND LONDON C. SLIMP, JR., ON MONDAY EVENING

The First Christian Church provided the setting on Monday evening at eight o'clock for the wedding of Miss Mary Ann Curington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Curington, and London Clyde Slimp, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Slimp of Decatur, with the Rev. W. O. Harmon as officiant for the double ring ceremony.

The altar space was graced with arched arrangements of white carnations, gladioli and asters in matching white urns, and softly illuminated with gleaming ivory tapers in gold floor candelabra. Woodwinds, pines and cascading of huckleberry foliage fashioned an effective background for the floral arrangements, and white asters caught with white satin ribbon marked family pews. The tapers were lighted by Paul and Calvin O. Curington, Jr.

Miss Lena Mae McClure, organist, played the wedding music, which included "Lohengrin," "Ave Maria," "Oh, Perfect Love," and the accompaniments for Miss Frances David, who sang "Oh, Fair, Oh Sweet and Holy," and John Womack, cousin of the bride, who sang "Because." The traditional wedding marches were used as processional and recessional, and excerpts from Lohengrin, "Bridal Chorus" were heard during the ceremony.

Given in Marriage By Father. The bride was gown in petal white, imported marquisette, styled with a sculptured bodice of Chantilly lace which achieved a hand-span waistline, and a shoulder yoke of marquisette which extended into voluminous push-up sleeves. A billowing skirt swept into a cathedral train. Her thruster veil of misty French illusion floated from a Marie Antoinette tiara of seed pearls. The bride adhered to the traditional wearing of "something old, something new, etc." and the sixpence for her shoe was brought from Europe by the bridegroom. She carried a prayerbook arrangement of Stephanotis, centered with a white orchid.

Bridal Attendants. Mrs. H. Berle Southall of Denton, who served as matron of honor, was attired in pink net over tulle, designed with a fitted bodice, puffed sleeves, and bouffant skirt. She carried a chapel bouquet of pink angel lilies and roses, tied with long streamers of harmonizing satin ribbon, and wore matching blossoms in her coiffure. Misses Betty Robinson, Martha George, Helen Statham and Ruth Slimp of Decatur, bridesmaids, wore identical gowns of pink net over tulle, fashioned with mold-line bodices, puffed sleeves and full gathered skirts. They carried chapel bouquets of pink angel lilies and roses tied with satin ribbons, and wore matching blossoms as coiffure adornment.

L. C. Slimp, father of the bridegroom, served as best man, and the ushers were Robert J. Slimp of Fort Worth, Calvin O. Curington, Jr., of Tyler, L. B. Slimp of Fort Worth, W. P. Hughes of Waco, Campbell M. Gillespie, Jr., Hugh Gillespie and Paul Curington.

The bride's mother wore black crepe with fuchsia bolero and encrustation of multi-colored sequins, and a corsage of fuchsia asters. The bridegroom's mother chose black crepe and a corsage of gardenias.

Reception at Kinsloe House. An informal reception followed at Kinsloe House, where pink and deep purple zinnias adorned the Audrey Kelly Room. Pink roses and clematis graced the mantel and a period arrangement of white bridal blossoms in a milk-white epergne highlighted the Kinsloe White table.

The bride's table held the satin-lined, flower-embossed cake of double ring contour, and a crystal punch service. A central arrangement of white asters, gladioli and hollyhock in an antique silver wine cooler, flanked by glowing ivory tapers in silver candelabra, completed the decor.

Mrs. Campbell M. Gillespie had charge of the cake. Misses Joan and Janet Williams of Decatur presided at the punch service, and Miss Evelyn Womack registered the guests. Other members of the houseparty were Misses Billie Ann Cheney, Anne Smith, Carolyn Dublin, Marilyn Moore, Beverly Rohmfalk, Mary Lois Seale, Jo Ann Robinson, Betty and Bonnie Wilder of Des Moines, Iowa.

When the couple left on a short wedding trip, the bride was wearing a two-piece suit of black tulle cloth, with blouse of white eyelet embroidery, black picture hat, matching accessories and a white orchid. Mr. and Mrs. Slimp will make their home at the "Village" in Denton, where the bridegroom will re-enter North Texas State College to work on his Master's Degree. In January, he will go to Austin as representative from Wise county.

Educational Background. The bride was graduated from Corsicana High school and attended North Texas State College at Denton. The bridegroom was graduated from Decatur High school, attended Decatur Baptist College and North Texas State College where he received his de-

Soil Conservation Practices Outlined

Terracing practices and care of hay meadows are outlined at the Navarro-Hill conservation district office here, showing the better results secured in Navarro county areas.

Five years ago the Watson Brothers whose farms are located near Barry in the Watson Conservation group, worked out plans for their terraces under the supervision and assistance of the Navarro-Hill Soil Conservation district.

After determining where the terraces would empty, the waterways were sodded with Bermuda and Dallas grass. Fences were built in order that the grass might be utilized for grazing as well as having a protected place into which to empty terrace water. These outlets are now furnishing grazing for about 100 cattle.

The Watsons have just constructed about four miles of terraces that empty on well-sodded pastures. They believe the job of establishing a conservation program on a farm should be spread out over a period of years.

Mrs. Nannie E. Bryan of the Eureka Conservation group, has proven that care of bluestem meadows pays. The 33 acre bluestem meadow was grazed and burned off yearly until 1944. The average production was about 750 bales up to that time. Beginning in 1945, grazing was regulated, the meadow was not burned off and a small amount of superphosphate was added. The yield was 1850 bales of hay. In 1946, the same practices were followed and the production of this meadow was 1750 bales.

STATE HEALTH CHIEF URGES PROPER CARE OF TEETH AT HOME

AUSTIN, Aug. 29.—(Spl.)—The fact that dental decay is likely to occur in the mouth of the average person, despite proper home care, given the teeth, does not lessen the importance of brushing the teeth and massaging the gums daily, nor does it minimize the need for a cleaning and inspection of the teeth twice a year by the family dentist, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer, says that the lack of these measures gives added power to germs that attack the enamel of the teeth and gum tissues.

"If, despite the proper application of such procedures, decay is suspected or teeth are injured in any way, the thoughtful person will seek the dentist's office promptly for the necessary corrective work," Dr. Cox said. "It is surprising, though, even in these days of comparatively painless dentistry, that so many persons neglect to make good their dental defect, inevitable or otherwise, because they foolishly fear the discomfort they might experience in the dentist's chair," said the state health officer.

There are others who, he said, lose a tooth or several teeth make no effort to obtain replacements. Apparently they believe they can let along without them. Reduced functioning power, the annoyance and sometimes actual discomfort of chewing hard substances on the exposed gums, and crooked teeth are some of the possible consequences of gaps in the teeth.

Dr. Cox advised those who are interested in experiencing the best dental and bodily health possible, to give daily attention to their mouth and visit the dentist twice each year, and promptly seek the dentist's services should decay or other suspicious conditions arise between the periodic visits.

"In short," Dr. Cox declared, "successful mouth hygiene means not only intelligent personal daily application of prophylaxis, but complete and timely co-operation with the family dentist as well."

Polio Victim Writes Music To Beat Band

fining his music career without stirring from his home.

Dedrick simply has developed his former sideline—writing orchestration—into a fulltime profession, and is branching out in still another field—composing.

He recently finished a ballad entitled "What Will They Say" which orchestra leader Vaughan Monrois is scheduled to record and publish.

Monroe, Ray McKinley, Buddy Rich and other bandleaders keep him busy writing arrangements which are mailed to the customers from his home in the nearby village of Delevan.

"While confined to bed, I used to turn out one arrangement about every two weeks," he said. "Now that I can get around in my wheelchair, I am doing two to three a week. In fact, the demand is greater than I can supply."

Dedrick, who was trombonist with Monroe's orchestra for two years, wheels his wheelchair to the piano where he turns out the instruments.

It Happened 25 Years Ago Today

(From the files of the Corsicana Daily Sun)

The Klan struck in Navarro county when an Emhouse negro was warned to stop operating an eating establishment. A group of masked men came to a negro party and, in the excitement, someone's pistol apparently was discharged since a negro was wounded. The cafe operator was taken aside for a good talk. He refused to say if he was beaten or mistreated. County Attorney Tarver stated the sheriff's office was investigating.

Miss Minnie Byrd, departed for Kentucky where she will teach at the Alan Drew school, located at Pineidge.

Thomas Meighan was starring in "The Conquest of Canaan" at the Palace.

The political situation in Germany was critical, with militarist spokesmen in their hatred for the victorious Allies. Prime Minister Erzberger was assassinated by two young men. They pumped twelve bullets into his head. The peace treaty was signed on Aug. 25, subject to ratification by the Reichstag and Congress.

DREAMS
The night comes down with dreams and, Oh,
Sometimes they fearful seem,
But there are times when poor
men know
Vast riches in a dream
A little while they are allowed
All pleasures care denies—
May walk with pompous men and proud,
Though soon to work they rise,
In dreams poor men may sail the sea
In yachts of gleaming white,
From all that frets them they are free
That little while at night,
When day too filled with trouble seems,
And man's life harsh and grim,
How good it is that happy dreams
At night may come to him!

Presidents' Sons

A collateral descendant of George Washington, George T. Washington of Ohio, has been appointed assistant solicitor general. The first president had no children, but a nephew, Bushrod Washington, was named by him as justice of the supreme court, and is buried at Mount Vernon.
Lincoln's son, Robert, was secretary of war under Garfield and Arthur, and president of the Pullman Company. Had he wished, he could have gone far in politics as the son of the Great Emancipator, but he always steadfastly refused to capitalize on his name.
In general, however, history has shown that either presidents have no male children, or the sons do not go far in politics. Theodore Roosevelt Jr.'s career was cut short by defeat as the governor of New York. Richard Folsom Cleveland was a delegate to a Democratic national convention, but turned to the Republicans later.

STETTINIUS' NEW JOB

Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., has a new job. The former secretary of state and the first American delegate to the United Nations has just been elected rector of the University of Virginia. This position corresponds to that of chairman of the board of trustees. It is work which will leave him a good deal of time for speaking and writing.
Many have wondered about the future of this talented man who was chairman of the board of the United States Steel Corporation at 38, and later the second youngest secretary of state in American history. He has much to contribute to the enlightenment of public opinion. The University of Virginia obviously gains by securing his services, and the country also profits because Mr. Stettinius now has a sounding board for his views.

GARDENS OVER CARS

A New Yorker writes to his favorite Times suggesting that garages be built in congested areas with parks on top of them. Instead of sending cars into basements and sub-basements, why not tear down an old building here and there and build garages which will house cars on two or three floors, possibly more, and have roof-gardens with grass, trees, flowers and maybe fountains and pools on the top? The garden would be available to all who want a little green rest and refreshment for eyes and hearts.
The idea sounds more and more reasonable as one thinks about it. And why is all that space on top of almost flat, high buildings, anyhow? Surely something pleasant and attractive could be done with much of it.
A midwestern manufacturer is making a collection of old automobiles, some of which date back to the '90's. If the junking of present cars is not soon surpassed by the building of new ones, he will be tempted to take his exhibits out of the show cases and sell them.
The Russians have applied for admission to the International Football League. They should do well; they have plenty of practice in their over-all situation and a

NEW ZEALAND BRIDE, FATHER-IN-LAW ARE VICTIMS OF CRASH

AMARILLO, Aug. 29.—(AP)—Definite identification was sought today for a man and woman, victims of a plane crash near Higgins, Texas, who were believed to be L. E. Conrad, a United Press official, San Francisco, and his daughter-in-law, a New Zealand girl who only recently wed his son.
The plane crashed and burned in the northern corner of the Panhandle yesterday.
In San Francisco, the United Press said that the chief teletype operator of its Pacific Coast division was flying a private plane of the type and make of the plane which crashed in-law, Doris Degen, who was visiting her parents in Kansas City, Kan.
Yesterday, in guessing up at Amarillo, the pilot and his destination at Wichita, Kan.
The United Press offices in San Francisco said that Conrad was a major in the air forces and saw service in Africa and Italy. His daughter-in-law arrived recently as one of a number of New Zealand brides-to-be for whom prospective grooms were required to post $500 bond on arrival to signify intent to wed. Her husband, L. E. Conrad, lives at Milbrae, Calif. At his home today, he said he had not yet been notified of the crash, in which the bodies were burned beyond recognition.
Conrad has been with the United Press since 1921 and has served for several years as chief teletype operator of the Pacific division.

PETRILLO SEEKS TO BAN MEXICAN BAND FROM STATE FAIR

DALLAS, Aug. 29.—(AP)—State Fair of Texas officials today were awaiting further developments in the controversy that arose yesterday when James C. Petrillo, president of the American Federation of Musicians, voiced objection to the noted Tlaxcala orchestra from Mexico appearing at the Texas State Fair and at the San Mateo, Calif., county fair.
W. H. Hitzelberger, executive vice-president of the State Fair, said last night that "We at least considered the possibility that the musicians union might object."
The orchestra is a unit of the Mexican government and does not hire out commercially," Hitzelberger said.

Feet have been sent out to a majority of junior colleges within reasonable traveling distance for games and also to army camps and teachers colleges. Paris Junior college is already on the slate and a full schedule will be arranged when the athletic directors return from vacations.
No difficulty is expected in arranging an attractive slate for the Scarlet and White eleven since most of the colleges have open dates.

War Crimes Court Told Horror Of Rape Of Nanking

TOKYO, Aug. 29.—(AP)—Conquering berserk Japanese troops slaughtered 250,000 Chinese in their bestial "rape of Nanking" in 1937, the war crime tribunal was told today in a long series of documents from those who lived through the weeks of horror.
This was a tragedy the like of which never has been known in history," said a Chinese report, read to the court which is trying former Premier Hideki Tojo and 28 others for war guilt.
Japanese civilian authorities, the report said, were unable to halt the rampaging victorious troops from rape, robbery, looting, murder and arson.

COLORFULLY-APPOINTED TEA AT W. K. LOGSDON HOME ANNOUNCES BARBARA JESTER'S ENGAGEMENT

Frugal magic fashioned the W. K. Logsdon home and grounds into a bower of blossoms when Mrs. Logsdon and daughter, Miss Constance Logsdon, entertained for a colorfully appointed tea on Tuesday afternoon announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Barbara Jester, daughter of Governor-Elect and Mrs. Beauford Jester, to Major Howard L. Burris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard B. Burris of San Antonio.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. J. M. Dyer, and presented to the hostesses, the honoree and her mother; Mrs. George T. Jester and Miss Joan Jester, grandmother and sister of the honoree; Miss Nadine Matheny of Houston, Miss Audrey Owings of Fort Worth, Miss Charlotte Greene of Dallas, Miss Betty Stell, Mrs. Cullen W. Dunn, Mrs. R. Q. Kennaugh, Miss Jane Jackson, Miss Byron Cocks, Mrs. James G. Mason, Mrs. Ed Graham, and Mrs. E. C. Wareing. The honoree and her mother and grandmother were attractively attired in summer formal with orchids for flower charms. Other members of the houseparty were similarly attired and wore corsages of harmonizing blossoms.
Living Room Decor
The living room decor revealed the approaching nuptials in the pictures of Major Burris and Miss Jester, which centered a massive white satin heart that graced the piano, and was encircled with bankings of snowy white chrysanthemums, gladioli, roses and cascades of bougainvillea. Clusters of gardenias graced the heart at intervals and completed the unique arrangement.
The hall and morning room were done in pink roses, carnations and angel lilies, and the atmosphere of the entire home was redolent with the fragrance of mystery gardenias, which were featured in myriad floating arrangements.
Dining Room Decor
The polished surface of the refreshment table reflected a yellow, satin-laced, rose-embossed, bride's cake of single ring contour, and a profusion of souvenir roses in a handsome silver compote as an additional point of interest. Gleaming ivory tapers burned in hand-shaped antique candelabra and the distinctively appointed table, which featured pink roses as decorative highlights.
Guests registered on the sideporch where a wrought-iron, glass-topped table held pink and white figurines, silhouettes against a huge fan fashioned of pink roses and carnations. Mesdames R. Q. Kennaugh and Cullen W. Dunn presided at the guests' book.
The one hundred and twenty-five guests were bidden adieu on the lawn at the rear of the home, which was studded with individual tables, graced with central arrangements of var-hued zinnias and chrysanthemums.
Wedding Attendants
Miss Jester will be attended by her sister, Miss Joan Jester, as maid of honor, and Mrs. George S. Harker of San Antonio, sister of the bride.

SOVIET AMBASSADOR'S DEPARTURE WILL NOT BREAK OFF RELATIONS

ATHENS, Greece, Aug. 29.—(AP)—The Soviet Ambassador, Adam K. K. Rodionov, announced today that the Soviet charge d'affaires in Greece would be First Secretary G. Tcheremessov. Rodionov thus indicated his departure for Moscow did not mean a break in Soviet-Greek relations.
Faying a farewell call at the Greek foreign ministry, Rodionov told the acting foreign minister, Stephanos Stephanopoulos, that his departure for the Soviet capital was "in execution of a mission."
He conferred for 45 minutes with Stephanopoulos. Immediately afterward the United States ambassador, Lincoln MacVeagh, entered Stephanopoulos' office.
Greece is preparing for a plebiscite Sunday on the question of the return of King George II from his London exile. The Moscow press has loudly declared that the plebiscite is being rigged by the pro-royalist Greek government and that the issue is prejudiced by the presence of British troops.
Greece has been accused of endangering peace in the Balkans in an action by the Soviet Ukraine before the United Nations Security Council.

Hung Her Clothes On Hickory Limb; Did Go In Water

NORTH BERGEN, N. J., Aug. 29.—(P)—An attractive 18-year-old girl swimming nude in the Hudson River gave two policemen in a rowboat a merry chase for an hour and a half today.
Lieutenant Arthur J. Foley and Patrolman Frank Robbins of the Hudson County Police, who finally coaxed her into their craft, said she laughed at them as she sported in the river, swam under the hulk of a scow to elude them, and then rocked the boat and swished water at them as they rowed her to shore.
The girl, dressed in overalls and slippers, was turned over to her mother. No charge was lodged against her.

ball players will participate, plus entries expected from Streetman, Calif. Roping.

Sure fire entertainment is promised from the amateur calf ropers if the first rodeo July 4 is any guide. At that show the howl from the crowd was brought when a rider finally roped his calf; then found he had lost his pigtails string.

The special events will be a calf scramble with the Corsicana Senior High School Tiger football players in the arena. The cow loving event will feature the same cantankerous Brahman cow with the prize snugly hid in her ear. The final special event will be a dark boy on a dark mule. The mule is reputed to be a seething pack of trouble on four hooves.

Seating capacity of the arena has been increased to 4,000 with an additional 500 reserved seats constructed over the east end of the arena. Ample parking space will be provided north of the arena. New stands have been erected on the north side to replace the circus type seats used at the last show.

COUNTY DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE TO MEET SATURDAY MORNING

Members of the Navarro County Democratic executive committee have been called to meet Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, to wind up the business of the year and canvass and declare the results of the second primary election last Saturday. The call was made by Jack Thompson, county chairman.

The primary election committee will probably canvass the returns prior to the meeting of the main county committee.

J. R. (Rex) Patterson of Frost will succeed Chairman Thompson following the meeting Saturday. He was elected at the first primary election in July.

There will be a number of new members of the county committee to take office Saturday for the next two years. Some were elected to fill vacancies and others defeated the incumbents in the primary election last month.

At least one resignation will be submitted.

Texas Manufacturer Pleased Election Is Won By Conservatives

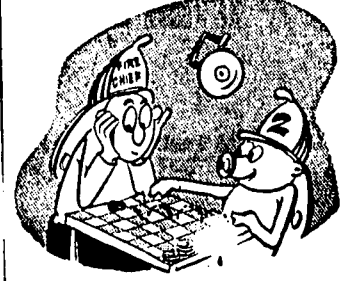

PORT WORTH, Aug. 29.—(P)—C. K. Stillwagon of Houston, president of the Texas Manufacturers Association, pleased with the outcome of last Saturday's democratic primary run-off, has predicted Texas will continue as a leading spot on the nation's map of industrial growth and expansion.

Stillwagon said conservatism, as expressed in the election "sound legislators and a good administration," will serve as a stimulant for further industrial and commercial growth and expansion.

This Little Pig Joined Fire Dept.

JERSEY CITY, N. J.—(P)—Battalion fire chief Bernard Duffy commented "everybody comes in here" when a small black and white suckling pig strolled into

TEXARKANA TO HOLD ELECTION TO FILL MAYORALTY VACANCY

TEXARKANA, Tex., Aug. 29.—(P)—A second candidate today had filed for the special election to select a mayor of Texarkana to succeed Mayor W. H. Harkness who resigned recently.

William V. Brown announced late yesterday that he will allow his name to be filed in the mayor's race. A petition had been filed by 100 Texarkana residents with the city secretary asking that Brown's name be placed on the ballot.

Brown, once a candidate for Governor of Texas, has formerly served as mayor for 12 years. The first candidate to file for the special election was J. Ralston Crowder, Texarkana insurance man.

Harkness and three city aldermen resigned recently after a grand jury indicted the aldermen on charges of accepting bribes in connection with a street extension project. Harkness was not indicted.

HUGE PLANT WILL BE BE CONSTRUCTED NEAR BROWNSVILLE

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—(P)—G. C. Gabrielsen, president of Carthage Hydrocol, Inc., has announced that a $19,000,000 plant for manufacture of gasoline and other chemical components from natural gas will be constructed next year near Brownsville, Texas.

The plant has been designed to process daily approximately 64,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas and to produce 5,800 barrels of motor fuel. Other production figures include daily processing of 1,200 barrels of synthetic diesel oil and 150,000 pounds of crude alcohol.

The Brownsville location was selected because of numerous gas fields in the vicinity.

His Extra Income Starts In 1951

Here's a plan that one of our customers followed which in a few years will start paying dividends. Back in 1941, when War Bonds were known as Defense Bonds, he started buying a $50 Bond every month, at a cost of $37.50 each. In 1951, as the bonds start to mature, he will begin to collect $50 a month, and will continue to do so for as many years as his Bond buying program will have been in force. He is 43 years old, so he expects to keep building this reserve fund for quite awhile. Isn't his plan an excellent one to follow in order to supplement your social security for your own and your family's future?

POLITICAL LEADERS PLAN MEETING AT HILLSBORO SATURDAY

A gathering of political leaders in this section of the State will be held in Hillsboro Saturday and several Corsicans expect to be in attendance.

Burris C. Jackson will be host for the group for luncheon at the Hillsboro Country Club. Price Daniel of Liberty, democratic nominee for attorney general, Myron C. Block of Marshall, democratic national committeeman, and others will speak. Jackson, who was in Corsicana yesterday to address the Rotary Club, said that whatever the political significance of the meeting, but that a lot of "harmony talk" might take place. Jackson supported Jester for governor.

Men active in politics from Dallas, Ft. Worth, Cleburne, Waco, and other cities will be on hand.

accept Outer Mongolia, which has current relations only with Russia. The council, considering eight applications on the last day in which it may complete action for the September meeting of the general assembly, ran into a snarl when Australia, The Netherlands, the United States, Egypt, France, Great Britain and China challenged Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet delegate to explain his stand.

Hasluck said the Transjordan application would fall now through the veto because it does not have relations with Russia.

Declaring that the council members have a responsibility to all U. N. members and not solely to their own governments, Hasluck said: "We cannot countenance any action that amounts to prejudice" against any nation.

Mexico also joined in questioning Russia's stand.

Gromyko replied briefly to the delegates with the statement that it seemed to him he was clear enough on his motives and that he had nothing to add.

China and Soviet Russia today supported the application of the Mongolia People's Republic for admission to the United Nations and thus differed openly with the United States and Great Britain on the second of eight applications to be taken up by the U. N. security council.

When discussion on Albania, to which the United States was opposed, was completed with a brief supplementary skirmish in which the council decided to vote on all applications at the end of the debate, Outer Mongolia was taken up.

China supports Mongolia.

Dr. C. L. Hsia, Chinese delegate said China was prepared to support Outer Mongolia, "if we ever come to the voting." China originally had recommended the application wait until next year for the U. N. to know Outer Mongolia "more intimately."

Gromyko, Soviet delegate, cited support given the Red Army by Outer Mongolia.

The British and United States delegates stated their opposition to taking in Mongolia at this time. Both sought deferment of this application.

Afghanistan Cleared.

Afghanistan, a small country, was given a clean slate with little discussion.

The security council, faced with the threat of a blackball from the United States on Albania and Mongolia, both sponsored by Russia, resumed debate this morning on the eight applications.

Pavle Lukin, Yugoslav spokesman, advocated the admission of Albania.

Lukin countered the two-hour plea made yesterday against Albania by Vassili Dendramis, Greek representative.

Final Day Thursday

On the last day in which the council may consider applications for the coming session of the general assembly, Dr. Oscar Lange of Poland, council president, warned the delegates to be prepared for morning afternoon and night sessions.

The prospect of an American blackball of both Albania and Outer Mongolia developed yesterday after Soviet Russia had rejected a proposal by U. S. delegate Herschel V. Johnson that the council pass favorably upon all eight applicants.

Johnson withdrew his proposal at Soviet delegate Andrei A. Gromyko's request. Russia was joined by Australia in principle.

Johnson threatened veto

Johnson immediately countered by reiterating a reservation he had slaughter subsidies which lapsed with price control June 30.

Other Prices Up.

OPA said the 20-ounce size of plain pancake and waffle mix as well as buckwheat pancake mix will rise two to three cents because of higher prices on flour and cornmeal.

Fancy sliced Hawaiian pineapple will climb four cents a No. 2 1-2 can.

One pound can of Alaskan Red Salmon will cost six cents more while the pink variety goes up four cents.

Syrup boosts will amount to as much as 20 per cent for blended maple and cane syrups, OPA said. Candy manufacturers also were allowed a blanket increase in price to bring their earnings up to normal peacetime averages, but OPA said this should not affect consumers because few manufacturers could qualify.

Dairy Prices Issue.

On the subject of dairy price controls, Chairman Roy L. Thompson of the decontrol board telephoned a statement to Washington from his New Orleans home yesterday, recalling that his independent panel has sole authority over those now-suspended ceilings.

Porter on Tuesday said in New York he would "insist" upon a return to controls because he feared milk prices soon would get out of line.

At the agriculture department, aides of Anderson told a reporter that one of the factors influencing the decision to decontrol milk was made in first offering his proposal, when he declared that the United States had "misgivings about some of the applicants, especially Albania and Outer Mongolia," but was willing to waive any doubts if all eight could be accepted in a batch.

Sweden, Iceland and Afghanistan remained unopposed for membership. Portugal, Ireland and Transjordan were without support from Russia, and Poland was a leader in opposition to Portugal and Transjordan.

L. Lincoln of Texarkana, a Jester supporter, has been appointed chairman of a sub-committee on temporary organization and procedure for the convention. Other members named on the committee are Joe T. Drumwright of Wortham, committee man from this district; L. L. Wilkes, Hubbard school executive, and other Jester supporters.

Tyson was quoted as saying the committee would be acceptable to Jester.

One of the goals of Jester's campaign was the restoration of harmony to the party in Texas. With announcement that Seay would not be a candidate for reelection as state chairman, conjecture immediately developed in all sections as to the likelihood of the new state chairman. The nod from the governor-nominate will probably be the determining factor, but no intimation has come from him as to his choice.

Among the men mentioned by the guessers include Bob Calvert, Hill county attorney, a liberal leader and Jester supporter; Albert Sidney Johnson, Dallas, veteran of both wars; Miller Ainsworth, Lubbock; Bob Henderson, Houston; Bascom Gist, Tyler, and others. The number will likely be increased considerably before the selection is made and announced.

There seems to be an honest effort and desire of the forces of the governor-nominate and present Democratic officials to insure a harmonious session at the state convention, and there apparently is no movement on foot that would alienate those Democrats who were not partisan Jester supporters.

There seems to be a chance of healing the wounds and bitterness of the campaign two years ago when there were two camps—one wedded to the Roosevelt-Truman national Democratic ticket, and the Texas Regulars, bitter opponents of Roosevelt.

The maneuvers of the Jester forces looms as a death knell to the announced intentions of the Republican forces as counting disident Democrats into an attempt to make Texas a two-party state.

Tyson is the floor leader and spokesman of the Navarro county Democratic delegation to the state convention. Governor-Nominate Jester is a member of the delegation. Tyson endorsed Jester the day he announced as a candidate last spring.

Jester's Daughters Get Card Addressed With Photographs

An "East Texas friend of the daughters of Governor-Nominate and Mrs. Beauford H. Jester of Corsicana mailed a card to Corsicana, Texas, with the photos of Misses Barbara and Joan Jester placed where the addresser's name should appear. The picture was that recently appearing in newspapers throughout Texas prior to the election when their "Dad" received the Democratic nomination as governor.

When the card arrived at the local postoffice, it was immediately placed with the proper carrier's mail who delivered it as quickly as had the names and street address been written by typewriter. Jerry Roe was the carrier.

The commission has reached the conclusion that income from the permanent fund is not sufficient even to support the University and A. and M., the governor added.

Net annual income from the fund is "way down because of the low rate of interest," explained Stevenson. He estimated the university's annual net share at $800,000 and A. and M.'s at $400,000.

A number of negro leaders in the movement to establish a first-rate negro university and A. and M. College have expressed the determined belief that such schools should share in the permanent fund rather than depend on legislative appropriation.

Cattleman Is Glad Ceilings Up; Hopes For Controls' End

FORT WORTH, Aug. 29.—(P)—Jay Taylor of Amarillo, past president of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, believes that the action of Secretary of Agriculture Anderson in directing increased ceilings on live stock is "a step in the right direction" and should enable the legitimate packer to compete with the black market operators.

Joe Montague of Fort Worth, attorney for the association, has a different opinion, however, believing the new ceilings will bring "some relief" but asserting they will not put cattle in the feed lots.

"With no controls on feeds, I don't see how a feeder can run the risk and I don't think he will," Montague said.

Taylor said he was disappointed when the decontrol board recently declined to take off controls but said the secretary's actions are "certainly much better than to be put back under the old ceilings."

"They should enable the feeder buyers to come back in the market and buy feeder cattle with the benefit of a pretty good spread," Taylor said. "As long as we have to go along under controls, I think the secretary's program on cattle is a good one and I can live with it."

Montague predicted that the increased ceilings will not prevent a shortage of meat next fall and spring.

Both men said the $13 maximum stabilization range on commercial grades of cattle appears too low and "out of line." Both contended also that the only real solution is the removal of controls on livestock replaced by the law of supply and demand.

THE NATION TODAY

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—(P)—This country has agreed to let the world court have some say over some of our problems with other nations.

This, like our joining the United Nations last year, is another step away from isolation.

The court's purpose is to try to settle international legal disputes by international law.

By this legal means of ending a quarrel nations may be less inclined to leap at one another's throat.

The court—called the international court of justice—is part of the United Nations machinery.

All nations which become members of the United Nations automatically become members of the court but only those nations which specifically agreed to let the court have authority over some of their problems could sue, or be sued, in the court.

Twenty nations, including this country and Britain, have agreed to accept the court's authority, or jurisdiction.

Others—like Russia, China, France—have not agreed yet.

But we've put pretty strict limits on the kind of jurisdiction the court can have over us.

For example: The court has no authority over problems which we consider domestic, like tariffs or immigration.

We've agreed to let the court have jurisdiction over legal disputes, only. For example: Interpreting a treaty if a dispute arose with another country.

The shooting down of American planes by Yugoslav airmen, for instance, wouldn't be a problem for the court. We'd take it to the U. N. security council.

A world court, called the permanent court of international justice, was set up side by side with the old League of Nations in 1921.

To join, a two-thirds vote of the senate was necessary. No more than a majority of the Senators ever voted to join. We stayed out. Then U. N. succeeded the League.

1947 Cotton Crop Insurance To Be Simpler Process

Farmers who sign up for insurance on their 1947 cotton crop will get a simplified contract that provides coverage more nearly equal to the investment in the crop at the different stages of production, C. T. Young, ACA administrator said Thursday.

Protection against all risks remain the same as in 1946. The insured farmer will be supplied with tables showing exactly the amount of indemnity he can expect at any stage of production, if he suffers a loss. This should prevent misunderstanding by adjustment time, Young stated.

Instead of the former 80 and 75 per cent levels of coverage, the new cotton regulations provide three levels—A, B, and C. Premium will range according to the level of coverage, with highest costs and coverage under level C.

Closing dates for filing 1947 applications will be earlier in most areas than they were in 1946. The new regulations are expected to reach county agricultural conservation (AAA) offices in cotton states by October. This should give the farmers ample time to consider the new program for insurance.

New Silvertowns "Meet Taxi Requirements"

"Rain or shine, year in and out, 24 hours of the day, taxis serve the public," says Mr. Thomas A. Ballantine, President of Yellow Cab, Louisville, Ky. "Safety, dependability, and economy are the watchwords of successful taxi operation. B.F. Goodrich Silvertowns meet these requirements."

For Safety, Economy, and Mileage choose the tire that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES

One of the taxi fleets that tested the new B.F. Goodrich Silvertown before it was offered for public sale was Yellow Cab, Louisville, Ky. In addition, it was tested on police cars and the B.F. Goodrich test fleet over millions of miles in all kinds of weather under severest conditions, and even at high speeds.

All these tests supported Mr. Ballantine's findings that: "... their wider, flatter tread gives our cabs better traction and surer, safer stopping. The stronger cord body means fewer interruptions and service stoppages. And in actual mileage, tests on our fleet prove they OUTWEAR PREWAR TIRES. Because Silvertown dres cover more ground, our cabs can, too, without interruption."

THIEF HURTS SELF MORE THAN THE VICTIM WHOM HE PLUNDERS*

Larger Significances of Violation of Property Rights -- Many Kinds of Theft -- Subordinate Place Given to Possessions by Jesus -- Life's Great Objective.

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS and EARL L. DOUGLASS
Once entered and robbed. The thief ransacked the rooms and closets and drawers, but carried off only several suits of clothes, and two priceless and historically valuable antiques which had made into stolen-plans. He did not know the value of the latter.

As I went through the rummaged house, my first instinctive reaction was a sense of sorrow for the thief. He had got so little and lost so much. Henceforth he would walk through the world minus his self-respect and manhood, a future creature looking upon every policeman with fear and suspicion. I had merely lost some goods, covered by insurance; he had lost manhood's most precious possession, his personal honor. He would live and die in the knowledge that he is a thief, an offender against society and a sinner against God.

A Comprehensive Commandment. For this Eighth Commandment, "Thou shalt not steal," is not merely a fence erected to protect property; it is a law of life, a principle of conduct, a principle of life. It is designed to deliver mankind from thralldom to possessions. It is a bulwark against the tyranny of material things. These four words bracket a wide area; they include not only the highwayman but also the profiteer, the carter as well as petty pilfering.

Not all stealing is as crude as the robbery in our home. Most theft is more subtle, and committed by men who could never conceive of themselves as violators of laws, perpetrating crimes in darkness.

One is a thief who underpays his employees, depriving the latter of their rights.

One is a thief who steals his employer's time, and gives faithless service.

One is a thief who overcharges for merchandise.

One is a thief who, by sharp dealing, overreaches his neighbor, or prevents him from possessing his rights.

One is a thief who puts property rights above personal rights.

One is a thief when he robs God of His sovereign rights.

Theft's forms are innumerable and as varied as life. And the pity of it all is that the thief does not distinguish between wrong and right; they see all self-advantage as proper enterprise or thrift.

The World's Present Plight. In a dark and fearful day, this lesson has present pertinency. Most of mankind is in the stern grip of economic need. Even Great Britain has had to ration bread. Wild inflation is sweeping some areas, and threatening all others.

Canada stands stronger than her big neighbor to the South, which of late has been threatened with the greatest economic crisis in American history. The outside world, dependent upon American bounty, looks with trepidation upon current conditions.

In the midst of impending disaster, grim greed and ruthless profit-seeking rear their hideous heads. What amounts to a gigantic theft from the people is within the contemplation of men for whom "traitors" is too mild an appellation. We are witnessing with our eyes the consequences of defiance of Divine decrees.

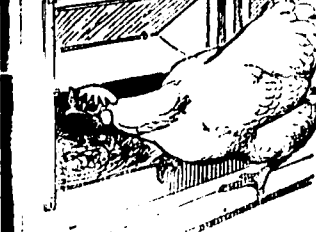

Into the midst of this contemporary world situation our Lesson thrusts the teaching of Jesus about property, and about anxiety for material things. Most of our worries are money worries. We are troubled about things, not about the greater goals of God.

The flat declaration of Jesus was "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you." Our world is in its present plight because the nations and the peoples as individuals, sought objectives contrary to the Kingdom ideals.

Now that your chair is vacant, Your voice will hear no more; Mother, how we'll miss you, 'Till we meet on that beautiful shore.

Now that in each room we'll see Things made by your loving hands, Oh, God, life is so empty Help us to understand.

You were so faithful toward us, And home will never be the same; We will always cherish your memories, And often call your name.

Mother, now that you're in heaven, It is nearer than ever before; With God's help we'll meet you, On that bright and beautiful shore.

(Written by ones who loved her dearly, her daughters.)

Roy I. Weir of Malakoff will be a captain in the army.

are the words of the Master which are at the heart of His message assigned for today's study: "Be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than the raiment?"

This seems to be asking the impossible. In an anxiety-ridden day it is not easy to practice perfect trust in the Lord, who not only rules the universe and the atom, but also exercise particular care for the least of His creation—the sparrow, the lily of the field, the child of His love.

Nevertheless, only faith—plus work to the utmost—can pull us through our present ordeal. We may suffer unsuspected hardships, yet faith can conquer fear, and our real selves emerge into the universe and the atom.

"One World" becomes the Kingdom of God, then all things will be added unto us.

SEVEN SENTENCE SERMONS. He is at himself that's not above an injury.

It may not be my way, it may not be thy way, but yet in His way the Lord answers our prayers.

Who from crimes would pardon-be, In mercy should set others free.

Help thy brother's boat across, and lo! Thine own has reached the shore.

Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal; for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

How'er it be, it seems to me, 'Tis only noble to be good— Kind hearts are more than crowns, And simple faith than Norman blood.

I have read in Plato and Cicero sayings that are very wise and very beautiful; but I never read in either of them, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden."

"The Sunday School Lesson for September 1st, 'Jesus and Light Use of Property'—Exodus 20:15; Proverbs 30:7-9; Matthew 6:25-33.

IN MEMORY OF OUR MOTHER, MRS. DAVE WILLIAMS. Ora May (Neesse) Williams was born Marietta, Ga., on May 18, 1884. She came to Texas in her early childhood with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neesse. She passed away suddenly on Sunday night, July 21, 1946.

Oh, how our hearts ache to know she is gone! Why she had to be taken from us, we can't understand. But it was the Lord's will, not ours. Mother, we miss you, but your sweet memories will live on forever.

Your visits in our home meant so much to us. The reunions we had in your home can never be forgotten. Oh, how our hearts ache to know she is gone, and it can't ever be home to us girls like it was when mother was there.

Oh, how hard it is to give up our loved one, no one can understand, but the ones who have traveled the same road. She wasn't only a sweet mother, but she was a pal to us girls. May we live the life she has lived, then we can speak the words she had said, "You may know when my time comes I am ready."

Oh, how our hearts ache to know she is gone, and it can't ever be home to us girls like it was when mother was there.

She was married to Dave Williams, who preceded her in death nearly twenty-five years ago, and her only son, Dave, passed away seventeen years ago. She is survived by five daughters, Mrs. Cecil Moore, Mrs. Ernest Harper, and Mrs. Edna Craig of Corsicana; Mrs. Mary Lee of Barry, and Mrs. Norman Baxter of Athens. She also had two brothers, Claude and Charlie Neesse, and two sisters, Mrs. W. T. Poff and Mrs. Edgar Leckart, all of Wellington, Texas.

She was a member of the Methodist church at Barry, where she had lived for the past 40 years. Funeral services were conducted by her former pastor, Rev. W. B. Weathers of New Castle, assisted by her pastor, Rev. Harper of Barry, Rev. E. W. Price, Baptist pastor of Barry and Rev. W. L. Craig, Methodist pastor of Garland. She was laid to rest in the Dresden cemetery.

Now that your chair is vacant, Your voice will hear no more; Mother, how we'll miss you, 'Till we meet on that beautiful shore.

Now that in each room we'll see Things made by your loving hands, Oh, God, life is so empty Help us to understand.

You were so faithful toward us, And home will never be the same; We will always cherish your memories, And often call your name.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Harris of Quitman, to Rev. J. T. Ayers, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ayres of Lubbock, was solemnized on Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the First Baptist Church. Rev. J. I. Cartledge read the double ring service with Marion Harris, both of the bride, as assistant.

Bankings of Woodward's palms provided a background for the matching white urns filled with white gladioli, carnations and asters. Ropings of plumed fern outlined the choir rail, and gleaming tapers in gold floor standards completed the decor. Miss Nancy Mize lighted the tapers.

Mrs. S. K. Brietz was at the organ for a medley of wedding melodies. She also played accompaniments for Mrs. Martha Ann Fleming who sang "O Promise Me", "Because", and "Oh Love That Will Not Let Me Go," and the traditional wedding marches. "Liebestraum" was played during the ceremony.

Given in Marriage By Father

The bride given in marriage by her father, was given in white silk marquisette over satin, designed with fitted bodice of heavy satin, deep yoke featuring an intricate design of seed pearls, and long bishop sleeves. Her full, gathered skirt swept into a graceful train, and her fingertip veil of French illusion depended from a calot of matching illusion encrusted with seed pearls. She carried a white satin Bible overlaid with an orchid and showered with Stephanotis. The bride observed the tradition of "wearing something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue."

The maid of honor, Miss Mary Elizabeth Scott of Fort Worth, wore yellow net over taffeta, designed with molded bodice, a high neckline, bertha of net outlining the dropped shoulders, and a skirt of bouffant styling. She wore a demi-hat of yellow net, gemmed with Peruvian lilies and Tullman roses, and carried yellow satin prayerbooks showered with the chosen blossom.

Misses Joyce Copeland, Exa Clair Love and Mrs. Leon Orpahl of Troy, bridesmaids, wore identical gowns of yellow net over taffeta, fashioned with basque bodices, deep yokes outlined with net, bertha, and full gathered skirts. Demi-hats of yellow net, embellished with Peruvian lilies and Tullman roses, completed their ensembles, and they carried yellow satin prayerbooks showered with matching blossoms.

Murray Harris of Quitman, brother of the bride, served as best man, and Rev. Leon Orpahl of Troy, J. D. Steinbaugh of Waco, and Stanley Fowler of Dallas, were ushers, and William Majors Harris of McAllen, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer.

Mrs. Harris, mother of the bride, was in black crepe with matching accessories, and corsage of Tullman roses.

Informal Reception

An informal reception honoring the couple was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Williamson immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was adorned with a profusion of white asters, carnations and bouvardia and held the three-tiered wedding cake embellished with yellow rosebuds, and a crystal punch service.

Mrs. J. R. Copeland and Miss Undine Harris had charge of the cake. Mesdames W. Wesley Harris and Marion Harris served punch and Misses Mary Lee Hughes and O'Neil McWilliam presided at the guests' book. Assisting in hostess duties were Mrs. Walter Garland, Miss Billie June Etheredge, Mrs. Bobbie Thompson and Miss Peggy Duhon.

ding trip, the bride was wearing a black wool tulle, white blouse and gloves, black accessories and an orchid corsage. Upon their return, they will make their home in Waco.

Educational Background

The bride was graduated from Corsicana High School, and Baylor University where she majored in speech and received her B. A. degree in May. She was a member of the Athenaeum Club, served as president of the House Council of Memorial Dormitory and as secretary of the senior class.

DROUTH BROKEN IN NAVARRO COUNTY BY HEAVY RAIN TUESDAY

Parched and arid fields and pastures of Navarro county were drenched with a life-giving rain Monday night and Tuesday, with indications that it will prove a boon to the agricultural situation. The precipitation in Corsicana was 3.6 inches, according to the government gauge. Other sections of the county also reported ample precipitation to rejuvenate withered crops.

The rains will remove much of the danger of ranch fires that have been nightmares to those with large pastures since the grass now will become green.

Many are of the opinion that the cotton crop will be materially aided. Premature bolls will be prevented from opening too quickly, and in the event that continued cloudy weather does not prevail, a top crop may be produced. Insects generally damage the top crop, but when the insects do not appear and the season is right, forms appearing before the middle of September can mature.

Fall gardens will be benefited and in addition to the crop aid, the ground will be in good condition for early fall plowing.

Because of the dry ground and particularly on the black land where sun cracks abound, little of the rain made its way into the streams, but most of it soaked into the ground.

County Reports Rain.

Reports from county points included:

Rice—Nice rain, little electrical disturbance.

Emhouse—Big rain, no wind, little lightning.

Kerens—All-night rain, little lightning.

Frost—Plenty of rain, some lightning and wind, no damage.

Blooming Grove—All-night rain, no damage from lightning.

Dawson—Some rain, light wind, no damage. Rainfall .54 inch.

Science Instructor At Junior College Assumes Position

James H. Edgar, Jr., recently appointed by the board of trustees of Navarro Junior college as an instructor in science, assumed his duties Tuesday. He is a native of Richland.

The new faculty member obtained his bachelor of science degree at East Texas State Teachers college at Commerce in 1938 and was awarded his masters degree Aug. 28, 1946 from the same institution. His previous teaching experience was obtained at Wichita Falls, 1939-40; Mount Pleasant, 1940-41; and White Oak High school, Longview, 1941. At the end of the school term in 1941 he became a civilian instructor at Sheppard Field.

Edgar enlisted in the Army Air Forces Dec. 14, 1942 and served three years as an instructor in flight engineering for B-29's at Lowry, Luke and Hondo Army Airfields. He was placed on inactive duty as a second lieutenant in June, 1946.

A graduate of Richland High school, he is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Edgar, Sr., of that city. His wife and child are presently residing in Commerce with her parents. They plan to make their home at Air Activities field, location of the school.

Richland—Good slow rain all night long.

H. C. Robinson, Navarro county agent, said the rain helped everything except open cotton. He predicted that cotton on heavy lands would be helped, while early grains and pastures would be benefited to a marked degree. This will insure the early planting of oats and other winter grazing crops.

Miss Annie Maude Shaw of Tyler, a former teacher in the Corsicana Public Schools, is visiting in the home of her father, J. B. Shaw of Frost, this week.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help!

1. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2. Started 3 days before "your time," it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

Try Cardui this 3-way help! If it helps, you'll be glad you did.
